WE SPECIALIZE IN LINING-OUT STOCK!

We are very proud of our lining-out stock. With us, the growing of top-quality liners is a specialized business — not just a sideline. From the beginning of our nursery some ten years ago we have specialized in this field, and we now feel that we can supply you with some of the best liners to be found anywhere.

Our Dowfume MC2 fumigated beds have a high peat moss content, are all under sprinkler system, and we maintain a carefully supervised program of fertilizing and spraying. These factors combine to give you good healthy plants with wonderful fibrous root systems, strong stems and branches, and rich-green foliage.

We invite you to compare our liners with any others you may have been using.

With the high cost of transportation on finished stock, we urge you to consider the savings you will effect by growing your own — from our fine liners — either in containers or in the field.

The demand for container-grown stock is steadily increasing. Place your order with us early and be sure of having nice stock on hand for next season's sales.
